

American Art

H.A.T. Academy

Dear Student,

Do your research.

Look at the pictures.

After you have really taken time to look... start the drawing resource pages.

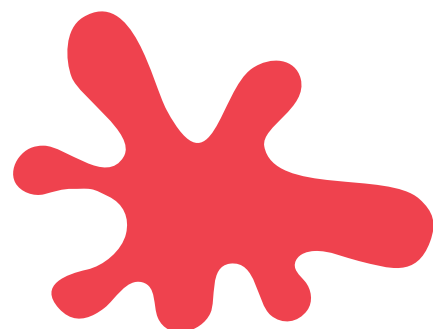

Observation is a very important part of learning.

This month we are learning about American art. We are looking at paintings by American artists. This is just a small part of American art. Have fun looking at all the paintings.

Good luck!

George Inness

Born May 1, 1825

Newburgh, New York

Died August 3, 1894 (aged 69)

George Inness was a prominent American landscape painter. One of the most influential American artists of the nineteenth century, Inness was influenced the Hudson River school . Inness's career spanned more than forty years and 1,000 paintings. A master of light, color, and shadow, he was often called "the father of American landscape painting,"

American Art Landscape

Landscapes are all the visible features of an area of countryside or land.

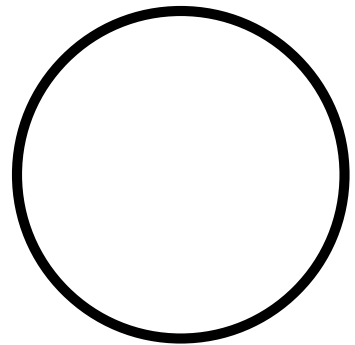

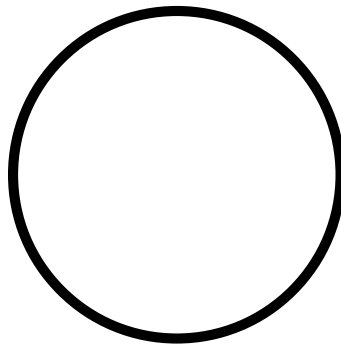

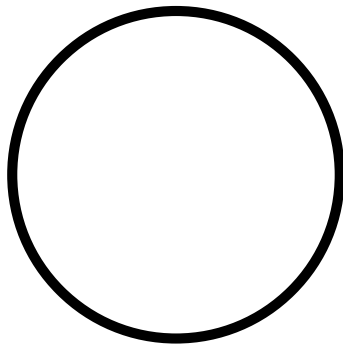

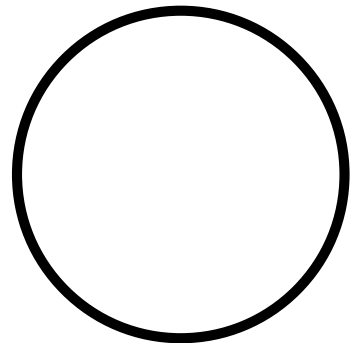

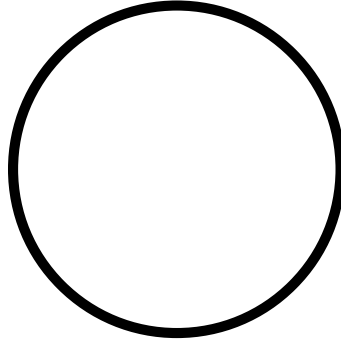

Landscape emerged as a genre in American painting during the 19th Century.

A genre is a category of artistic composition characterized by similarities in form, style, or subject matter.
